USE OF CONTENT AND AI GENERATED IMAGES

Disclosure Requirement: Authors must clearly state when AI-generated images are used, such as a brief note in the figure caption: "Image generated using Chat GPT." Always specify the AI platform or tool used.

Content Review: All AI-generated images should go through the same departmental or committee review as traditional graphics to ensure accuracy, appropriateness, and consistency with the scientific message.

Limited Use: Limit AI-generated images to conceptual, illustrative or background visuals (such as stylized artistic elements), rather than data, clinical images or direct scientific evidence. AI-generated images must not replace real research results, patient images, or datasets.
